THURSDAY'S NOON NEWS.

NEW YORK.

STRIKE ON THE ERIE RAILROAD.

NEW YORK, February 26.—The jury last night in Brooklyn rendered a verdict that the thief, George Jackson, was shot by officer Klein and that the latter was justified and is commended for the faithful performance of his duty.

Through passenger travel on the Erie Railroad is stopped by a strike of the freight brakemen at Hornelsville. No through mail matter is to be sent over the road until further orders.

THE LOCOMOTIVE BROTHERHOOD.

CLEVELAND, February 26.—Special meeting of the Brotherhood Locomotive Engineers this morning was called to order by Charles Wilson, Grand Chief Engineer. Delegates appeared much incensed against Wilson for his acts during the recent strikes, and a resolution asking him to resign was adopted by a large majority. Thereupon, Wilson tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and he retired from the convention. A resolution was also adopted to keep all proceedings of the convention from the press.

ENGLAND.

THE ASHANTEE WAR NEWS CREATES GREAT EXCITEMENT.

LONDON, February 26.—The Duke of Abereconi has been appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

The Standard thinks the fact that the 2d of February had been fixed upon for an attack upon Coomassie indicates that the condition of the British troops is not hopeless, but at the same time sees that under the circumstances audacity gives the only chance not merely for victory but for saving the army.

LONDON, February 26.—Dispatches were received yesterday reporting a reverse to the Ashantee expedition and caused great excitement. The grave fears which were entertained for the safety of Sir Garnett Wolseley's army have, however, been dispelled by the receipt to-day, at the war office, of the following dispatch, which was immediately furnished to the newspapers and published at noon in extras:

COOMASSIE, February 15, 1874.

We reached here yesterday after a few days of hard fighting. The troops behaved admirably and our casualties are under three hundred. The king has left the town but is closely watched. He promises to visit me to-day and sign a treaty of peace. We hope to start on our return to the coast to-morrow. The wounded are recovering and the health of the remainder of the army is good.

[Signed.] WOLSELEY.

LONDON, February 26.—The ship City of Montreal, which arrived in Clyde yesterday from Pensacola, experienced a continuation of heavy gales. She lost her rudder and wheel, and had her wheel house stove in.

Jackson's Magic Balsam
Great Master of Pain,
IF KEPT IN EVERY FAMILY
WOULD BE FOUND EQUAL TO Any Emergency.

THE PROOF:

ATLANTA, GA., November 13, 1873.

P. Van Alstine, Esq., Barnesville, Ga.:

DEAR SIR—You must excuse me for this outburst of praise for your invaluable medicine, and thanks to you for placing it within my reach. Let me tell you about it: To-night, after supper, I was stricken with a very acute pain in my right side. I had felt it coming on for several days, but it did not reach a focus until to-night, and of all intense pains, it was the worst I ever had. Having tried your Balsam before for different ailments and found it equal to any emergency, I went down suffering most excruciating pain as I went along, and paid my last quarter for a small bottle of Jackson's Magic Balsam. It was with the greatest difficulty I reached home. The medicine was applied to the hurting place, and in a few minutes after the application, I took my pencil, and while I scribble these lines to you the pain has disappeared, leaving me as happy as the usual sun flower, and another dose of the Magic Truck in the bottle ready for any pain that might arise. I only wish you as much good luck as your Balsam is efficious, and that is a great deal.

Yours truly,
R. W. SMITH,
Typographical Artist,
With Christian Index.

Brevities.

Pittsburg snow looks like foundry sand about three minutes after it falls.

President Lerdo is making a tour of Mexico. He seems to have brought the blessings of peace to his hitherto distracted country.

Ladies are advised by the Rochester Democrat to dress for parties "so that no one will remember what you don't have on."

New York brides are introducing the London fashion of wearing bonnets at the ceremony when it is performed in church.

Fifty years ago the Sandwich Islanders eat folks; now the proportion of their children attending school is greater than it is in Boston.

A Wisconsin clergyman has been found guilty by a church council of "not always handling the truth with sufficient carefulness to meet the demands of veracity."

British officers are watching the drill, target practice and evolutions of our fleet at Key West with much interest, and were no doubt detailed specially for the purpose.

The present staff of the British Museum embraces about 400 persons. This patronage, heretofore under the charge of trustees, is to be transferred to the government.

Marshal MacMahon visited the Vendome column, and urged the contractor to hurry it up as rapidly as possibly. The eighth spiral is now going into place. The contractor promised the Marshal that the monument should be entirely completed by the first of June.

One might write a column obituary notice on an office-holder, and then not equal the brief announcement in an Iowa paper: "Harvey Jackson, county treasurer, is dead. He was lenient with the widowed, and his books always balanced."

O, woman! in our hours of ease, you know we'll do whate'er you please; we'll promise to renounce the sin of Bourbon, brandy, rum and gin, and go so far as to refrain (except when tempted) from champagne; but have some mercy, do, my dear, and leave, oh leave us lager-beer!

It is thought Governor Dix, of New York, will be re-nominated. Under his administration it has become possible in the State of New York to hang murderers, and not only send criminals to State's prison, but keep them there. As a Governor, he is the right man in the right place.

The Treasury Department has prepared for transmission to the House of Representatives the specific sums necessary to supply deficiencies in appropriations for the year ending June 30, 1874, and prior years. They are as follows: For Department of State, $18,067; Treasury Department, $636,673; War Department, $1,246,000; Department of Interior, $88,485; Department of Justice, $320,670; Judicial Department, $2,944; total $2,312,839.

Dan Rice is just now under an evil star. "He has been sold out," says Wilkes' Spirit, "at Sheriff's sale, horse, foot and dragoons." His farm, and even his newspaper, the Cosmopolitan, edited by Charles Stow, did not escape his creditors. Colonel Rice had a beautiful home in the centre of Girard, in front of which is a public square containing a handsome monument to the soldiers of the township who fell in the rebellion. It is of white marble, and the cost, $15,000, was wholly borne by Colonel Rice. The grounds about his place were extensive, with rare plants and shrubs, while the house contained many interesting and valuable works of art. His failure will be a great misfortune to the village.

☞ The Kansas legislators seem to be grievously afflicted this winter. The demand for votes is so meagre that the market is unprecedentedly dull. One of the unfortunate members, in detailing the situation in a letter to his home, gives expression to his feelings as follows:

"There's nobody buying votes this winter,
Because of corruption there's been such a holler;
I might walk the streets from morning til night,
And my vote wouldn't sell for a dollar."

Mary, the Mother of Washington.

In reference to the proposition now before Congress for the completion of the monument at Fredericksburg to Mary, the mother of Washington, the corner-stone of which was laid by Gen. Jackson in 1833, the New York Commercial Advertiser remarks:

> With the exception of crowned heads, the number of women who have been honored by the erection of statues or monuments in their memory is certainly few. Such an honor to the mother of Washington would be no less creditable to the country than to the noble woman whose self-pose, dignity and nobility of character, and firmness of discipline, were prominently operative in forming the character and directing the course of the "Father of his Country."
> At present the site of this monument is said to be in a very dilapidated condition, and the moderate expense of the structure itself—about $20,000—will have to be defrayed by Congressional action. There should certainly be no hesitation in voting the necessary appropriation, or in completing the contemplate memorial.

The Piedmont Air-Line.

Gen. Butler is trying to steal a section of our great Air-Line connection with Richmond—that portion which lies between Danville, Virginia, and Greensboro, North Carolina. It will be remembered that the road in question was seized by the United States officials as the property of the Confederacy. The facts of the case are these: The Confederate government, in the stress of its military operations, loaned the Richmond and Danville Company $1,000,000, mainly in bonds, to build the much needed link. The Richmond and Danville road executed a mortgage to secure the repayment of the loan. But they could not sell the Confederate bonds, and so they locked them up in a Richmond bank, and issued their own bonds, to raise money to build the connecting line to Greensboro. The bonds were never returned, nor the mortgage cancelled, though such an arrangement had been made. It was simply neglected until it was too late. In 1865, the Secretary of the Treasury fully investigated the matter, and on his order the road was restored to its real owners, upon their agreeing to pay $250,000 for some iron that had been put upon the line.

The mortgage was not recorded, and its existence was unknown to the foul birds of prey in Washington until it turned up among some captured Confederate papers. They have industriously worked to steal the road ever since—by suits that the Attorney-General was ashamed to prosecute, by appeals to the Treasury Department, and the latest move against the road consists in a resolution directing Butler's Judiciary Committee to inquire into the title of the United States to the road. The matter is pending. Butler, however, has been ostensibly ruled out on the ground that he is the attorney of the parties who are seeking the possession of the road under the government claim. Washington correspondents say that the hero of Fort Fisher is at the bottom of the whole business. It is either an attempt to steal, or a cheeky Butlerian attempt to levy black-mail on an useful and deserving company.

Speaker Bacon.

The first trial of Speaker Bacon as a presiding officer has been an unqualified success. During the two sessions in which he guided the deliberations of the House of Representatives he has exhibited a uniform and conspicuous ability.

He carries with him to private life the esteem of many new friends, and the respect of the entire public.

Telegraphic.

Senator Gordon has got a bill passed giving a large sum of money to a man who cleaned out the Savannah river.

Some Georgia appointments are noted.

The marines are having jolly fun down near Key West exploding torpedoes and riding surf.

The man Simmons recommended by Butler for the collectorship of Boston is about to be thrown overboard. Simmons was one of Butler's dirty tools. The appointment has aroused a lively war, which has frightened Butler and mutilated Simmons.

The United States Senate scotches the Centennial Exposition. Sumner scores it.

The English have had some tough gales.

The Alabama Press on the Constitution.

The Selma Times, one of the leading daily journals of Alabama, pays the following high compliment:

"We direct the attention of our readers to the prospectus of The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution, which appears elsewhere. It will, in a short time, make a second grand distribution of gifts to its subscribers, some of which are very valuable. For a description of the gifts, read the list. These gifts are to be actually given away, and will not cost the subscribers anything.

"The subscriber pays the usual subscription price and with his receipt receives a card at no additional cost, that entitles him or her to a chance in the Distribution. The Constitution is universally recognized as one of the leading journals of the South, and justly so. It is a great newspaper and a leading journal and those who want to read one of the best papers in the South should subscribe for The Constitution."

President Trammell of the Senate.

It is due to an officer who has for two consecutive terms occupied the exalted and responsible position of President of the Georgia Senate, the place next in dignity and rank to the executive, to notice his retirement from the office. More particularly is this due when that officer has filled the position as faultlessly as President Trammell. We have yet to read or hear from any source whatever of a solitary word of dissatisfaction with this official. Amid all the trying ordeals of four long years of duty as the presiding officer of the highest deliberative body of the State, if there has been a single murmur of disapproval of his conduct it has never come to our knowledge.

To a knowledge of parliamentary law that has been unerring, he has added a promptness, a rapidity, a politeness, an impartiality, a tact, a discrimination, a dignity and decision, that have never failed to impress the body over which he so worthily presided, and that have conspicuously moulded for him a reputation to be envied and treasured.

We are pleased to have the privilege of paying this truthful tribute to an admirable public servant. The people of Georgia will hold him in kind remembrance.

The Police Investigation.

The Constitution is informed that there will be a thorough investigation of the conduct of the police in the late tragedy. Let that investigation extend to all connected with it. The people want no partial work of it, and the proper authorities, we have no doubt, will see the whole matter thoroughly sifted.

Two desperate men, after a bloody rencontre, were suffered to meet again with little or no obstacle in their way. Indeed, it is freely charged that they were treated in such a considerate manner as to "remove" such obstacle, as we find it asserted in respectable journals outside of Atlanta. The apparent facts are such as to cast reproach upon the entire police force; not simply before one but a number. It is therefore incumbent upon the city authorities to investigate the conduct of every policeman connected with the affair, that the public may know the true state of the case, and the reproach upon our city may be removed, and that our citizens may understand what degree of protection to life and property they may expect. The character of our people and of the entire police force are too deeply involved to permit any other but the severest scrutiny into the facts. Let it be done.

The Temperance Tempest.

The movement that originated among the women of Ohio bids fair to sweep through every Northern State. Its intensity and strength, increases rather than diminishes in the States from which it springs, and every day witnesses new surrenders of saloons and stocks of liquors to the ladies. And each additional success makes the women of other and larger cities more sanguine and more determined to prosecute the work. In Dayton, Ohio—a town larger than Savannah—the ladies are resolutely preparing to simultaneously beseige no less than five hundred liquor saloons. In Springfield, Ohio, a large manufacturing city, $100,000 have been subscribed to carry on the crusade, and employ counsel if legal proceedings are instituted against the women while they are holding their improvised meetings of prayer, song and appeal. In Ripley, Ohio, the crusaders marched out with one day's rations, established a camp in front of each saloon, built fires, and were relieved in true military style, moving on the enemy's works by turns with all the power of "moral suasion" they possessed. The enemy soon capitulated.

The movement has reached Kansas and all the Western States. Tennessee is the only Southern State thus far affected. The women of Memphis are getting their song books and war-feelings ready. But the hurricane is sweeping over the Middle and Eastern States, and even the women of Gotham are moving in a modified way to diminish the evil that flows from their seven thousand and odd grog shops. The men who lease their buildings for the sale of liquors, and the officers of fashionable club houses are to be visited persistently and remorselessly. The women mean business—for a while at least—even in the Metropolis.

The weight of the churches is, almost without exception, thrown in active support of the ladies. The pastors of the different congregations jointly abet, and often lead, the crusades. They powerfully assist in working up a strong excitement and fervent zeal on the subject. The favorite text on such occasions is "Help those women." There is generally no lack of help, either of a moral or of a material nature, of prayers or of cash and rations. The deep religious interest now felt throughout the country, the general quiet in business circles, and the unusual degree of destitution, all are considered as contributing to make liquor-selling unpopular and drunkenness shameful.

The dealers in strong drink seem destined to have a short recess thrust upon them. The present war against the unpopular traffic is equally novel and invincible. It baffles the ingenuity of all. Unconditional surrender and an abrupt cessation of the obnoxious business is the almost inevitable result of every attack.

The Legislature Adjourned.

Last night the General Assembly of 1873–'74, adjourned sine die. Unless the Governor should convene the body for a special purpose, between this time and the fall election for members of the next General Assembly, its work is finished. At its two sessions, it has acted on nearly fifteen hundred bills and resolutions. It is the second Democratic Legislature that we have had since Radical rule. Take it altogether, it has been a body of average merit.

It is getting a pretty good round of abuse, but we do not remember any Legislature that ever adjourned in Georgia that was not well abused. There is a stereotyped current of denunciation that starts to flow at the end of every General Assembly that ever sat in the State. There is the regular stereotyped clamor about two much local legislation and the unwieldly size of the concern and all that sort of thing. We are having the same old sluice of grumbling poured out in the public prints at this time. And really we see so little harm in the matter that we feel no disposition to stop it. It will silence out in a few days. The croakers will have their grumble out and then quit. The members will go home and chat genially with their constituents. After a little jabbering things will simmer down into the old rut. New kinks in the law will be quietly submitted to. Everything will become serene and the Legislature of 1873–4 will go to obscurity and burial in the solemn toomb of the public printing.

This Generel Assembly has, as we remarked, been an average body. It has had good sensible men in it, who have tried to do their duty faithfully. It has handled the financial question very well. It can point to the public credit placed on a sound, solid basis by its legislation. This is its crowning achievement. It has been an economical body too. It has spent vary little money. It has most sensibly declined to burden the people with the expense of a Convention. It has put its seal of condemnation upon the indiscriminate State aid business. It has been liberal, too, withal. Its conduct in giving a portion of the State's stock in the Atlantic and Gulf Road to the company to enable the road to be pushed forward to make it a paying institution is very proper.

It has coddled the farming interest properly. The establishment of an agricultural department was a fine thing. That movement has our hearty approval.

In what it has not done the Legislature deserves some credit too. It has hammered out as few new counties as any General Assembly, that we ever had. It has been about as moderate on the local matters as could be expected. It has not been extravagant in licensing peddlers, and such like legislation.

Altogether we think it merits kindly remembrance, and we bid it a tender and regretful good-bye.

Summary of State News.

DALTON.

A shocking scene occurred on Hamilton street, in front of Trevitt Hall, on Saturday night. Alf. Burnett was performing in the hall, and a crowd was collected around the door, when a difficulty arose between a white man named Dyer and a negro barber. Dyer drew a knife and cut the negro dangerously in five places. The doctors think his case rather doubtful. The negro was a stranger, having recently come to Dalton, and seemed sober and well behaved. The white man was under the influence of strong drink when the difficulty occurred, and made his escape.——Several new residences are going up in Dalton.——The farmers are sowing largely in wheat, and the indications favor an abundant yield.—North Georgia Citizen.

EATONTON.

Eatonton can boast of some splendid marksmen. The last one to distinguish himself fired at a target the other day and lodged the ball in the neck of a negro boy who was watching the proceedings from the back of a house about forty feet to the left. Fortunately the ball was nearly spent, and the boy was worse scared than hurt.——Mr. W. R. Respress, of Eatonton, together with a revolver and a bull dog, made a would-be burglar do some pretty tall running last Saturday night. The only misfortune is that he didn't carry off some of the bullets in him.—Messenger.

AUGUSTA.

The advantages offered by the Augusta Canal for manufacturing purposes, are already attracting considerable attention. On Tuesday, it was carefully examined by one Maryland and two New York gentlemen, who expressed themselves very strongly in its praise. It is thought that one of the visitors contemplates erecting a guano factory.——There is considerable complaint about the condition of the county roads in Richmond county. The recent rains have put them in a very bad condition.——Augusta is preparing picnic grounds in anticipation of coming events.——Washington's birthday was celebrated in Augusta with more eclat than any year since the war. The military turned out, and the Oglethorpe Infantry had a prize drill, in which Corporal Taliaferro was the winner of the white plume. The fire department was also out.——Augusta had a four hundred dollar fire last Tuesday evening. A rag-house was destroyed.——On Saturday morning, about 3 o'clock, Mr. George W. Duval's Machine Works and Rope Factory, situated on the Louisville road, about six miles from Augusta, were burnt. Loss, $4,000. No insurance.—Chronicle and Sentinel.

CARTERSVILLE.

The temperance movement has recently made such strides in Cartersville that four bar rooms have closed out.——The city nearly had a conflagration last Sunday morning. The flames were fortunately extinguished with the loss of one bed.—There was a little knife work in Adairsville on the 19th inst., and one sportive gentleman now carries his left arm in a sling.—Standard and Express.

FORT VALLEY.

There is a young couple in Fort Valley who can sit up until twelve o'clock, and burn less kerosene oil than the family will use up in an hour.——Ninety-two cock-robbins is an average day's work for a Fort Valley boy.——The Mayor of the town and a prominent merchant had a little unpleasantness on the street last week. They were both taken before the Council, where the Mayor was let off, and the merchant contributed to the corporate finances to the tune of $25.——The chief colored citizen of Fort Valley can stand on his head, and swallow one glass of whisky, and six of water before changing ends. As a lifter of hen roosts, he is also thought to be a success.—Mirror.

DEATHS.

Stephen C. Millet, well known in Augusta as the former Superintendent of the Port Royal Railroad, died at Columbia, S. C., Tuesday morning of hemorrhage of the lungs. His remains passed through Augusta Tuesday night for Beaufort, where they will be buried.

Mr. R. C Hardwicke, of Savannah, suddenly dropped dead last Tuesday while passing from the sitting room to the hall of his dwelling on Liberty street.

Southern News.

The municipal debt of Richmond, Virginia, is stated to be $3,500,000.

Chattanooga, it is said, is to have a whisky campaign as soon as the weather moderates.

Twenty-four vessels, belonging to the United States navy, with about 8,000 men, are in the Key West, Fla., harbor.

There was a negro wedding in Columbus, Mississippi, last week which boasted cards, nine roasted pigs and a hundred cakes, and tapered off with three reception days.

In the naval target practice at Key West, the Wabash made the best line shot, the Wyoming the next, and the Canandaigua the third. So that very important question is settled.

The experiment of running the Jacksonville, Pensacola and Mobile Railroad at the reduced rates of fare having proved a failure, the old rates are to be resumed on March 1st.

A Kentucky Grange has had its little romance. Recently a young brother and sister of the order walked to the front of the Master and were united in marriage. What next?

The Norfolk Virginian says a man by the name of Adkins, living in Northampton county, N. C., about ten miles from Boykins', hanged himself on Sunday morning with a trace chain to a peach tree in his yard, because cotton is low.

Jimmie Woods, a newsboy in Clarksville, Tenn., has supported himself, accumulated $3,600, which he has loaned out at interest, and bought a scholarship in the Clarksville College, which he attends, following his calling when not in school. That boy is bound to succeed in life.

Many towns in Missouri are arousing to the advantage of manufacturing. At St. Charles, Booneville, Mexico, Macon City, Clarksville, Columbia, Glasgow, Warrensburg, and other large towns, where there are considerable accumulations of capital, meetings have been held to discuss the subject. In some cases there are propositions for the issue of city bonds in aid of industrial establishments.

A gentleman who has no land interest on what is termed the upper lakes, says that lands on Lake Harris are the best that he has seen in East Florida. The scenery is unusually beautiful and attractive. Frost seldom, if ever, injures the sugar cane; it tassels, and grows from fifteen to twenty feet in height. The timber round the lakes is tall and stately. Fine fish abound in their waters. And what is of still greater importance, that section is healthy.

Everybody has heard of "Uncle" John Harper, the famous Kentucky horse-breeder, and owner of the peerless Longfellow, and the recent report of his dangerous illness has been received with regret. A correspondent of the Courier-Journal writes that the old man is up and about again, and has in training a promising young horse, to which he has transferred some of the pathetic devotion and pride which once encompassed Longfellow alone.

Mr. Wofford was unwilling to leave this matter to any one man to investigate. It should be investigated by a competent committee of the General Assembly and reported on by them. Mr. McDaniel desired to say a word in explanation of any seeming delay in making the report. Not more than 10 or 12 days ago the committee was appointed; the urgent business of the session and active duties of the members of the committee have prevented them from discharging that duty earlier. They have given the subject a patient and fair investigation. Perhaps if a longer time had been granted the committee the subject might have been set at rest and to the satisfaction of all.

WASHINGTON.

THE SENATE SCOTCHES THE CENTENNIAL—THE HOUSE BY ONE VOTE KILLS THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE — 30 DEMOCRATS FOR FRANKING.

Washington, February 26.—The Juniata has reached Key West.

The Committee on Ways and Means will report a bill fixing the tariff on imported still wines at 50 cents per gallon in casks, and two dollars per case in bottles.

The Commerce Committee of the Senate referred the wonderful nomination of Simmons, for Boston collector, to Mr. Boutwell as sub committee.

Butler fed his Boston friends, including Simmons, to day.

There were no Southern nominations.

Norris was confirmed Collector for the Third District of Texas, and Burgess as Postmaster at Alexandria, Va.

CHEAP TRANSPORTATION.

The Star says the select committee on transportation is rapidly perfecting its report, which will be submitted to Congress some time next month. The committee will take the position that Congress has the authority to regulate the rates of fare over railroads, but will recommend against the exercise of such authority on the grounds that it is not at present expedient.

The Committee on Railroads and Canals are decided in the opinion that in the present condition of the Treasury it will not be expedient for Congress to grant any aid for internal improvements.

The Supreme Court re-assembles next Monday.

The American Consul at Buenos Ayres has refused to clear bills of health to a vessel bound for America on account of cholera prevailing there.

SENATE.

Pennsylvania petitions against the restoration of duty on tea and coffee.

The bill authorizing the use of the revenue cutter Relief in Mobile harbor as a boarding station goes to the President.

Gordon, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a House bill for the relief of Henry S. Walls, which authorizes the payment to him the sum of $196,000, for removing obstructions in the Savannah River. Passed.

THE SENATE REFUSES TO TAKE UP THE CENTENNIAL.

Cameron moved to take up the Centennial bill.

Sargent moved to take up the naval appropriation bill.

Cameron thought the vote should be taken first on his motion.

The Chair said as the morninghour had expired, the question would first be on Sargent's motion, but if the majority of the Senate opposed it would be voted down, and the question would then be on the motion of Mr. Cameron.

Cameron said very well. He hoped that would be the understanding, and hoped that the friends of his bill would govern themselves accordingly.

Sargent made some remark showing the necessity of proceeding with the appropriation bill.

Not one of which had yet been considered.

Sherman expressed his willingness to have the finance question postponed until Tuesday next. He did hope on that day the Senate would come to a vote. Terry, of Michigan, said he would object to anything that would postpone the financial matter later than Tuesday.

Sargent thought that two legislative days would be sufficient to dispose of the naval bill.

Cameron said he would object to anything until the Centennial bill was disposed of.

Sherman moved that a further consideration of the financial question be postponed until Tuesday next. Agreed to.

Cameron then moved to take up the Centennial bill.

Sumner thought that the regular appropriation bills should precede the irregular approprion bills.

Mr. Thurman said he should vote against the bill. He thought this idea of holding an exhibition was entirely destructive to the proper celebration of American Independence, and Congress could not do a worse thing than to put its hand in the Treasury to take out money for this purpose.

Cameron resented the styling the bill an appropriation bill.

Sumner read the bill and said that no candid person could deny that it was an entering wedge to calling upon Congress for a large appropriation. He read a dispatch dated February 16, 1874, addressed by Mr. Cameron to Mayor Stokely, of Philadelphia, expressing his desire that Mr. Stokely should be re-elected, and assuring him of his gratification to know that, in that event, any appropriation voted by Congress would be properly expended.

The Chair called Mr. Sumner to order for discussing the merits of the bill. Cameron said he had written the dispatch, and approved every word of it. He intimated that if McClure had been elected he would not have been so well satisfied as to the manner in which the money would be spent.

The Chair called Mr. Cameron to order for discussing the merits of the bill.

Sargent read from the 1st Act passed by Congress on the subject of the Centennial, prohibiting the appropriation of any money on that account.

After further discussion a motion to take up the bill was decided in the negative.

Yeas—Alcorn, Bayard, Boreman, Buckingham, Cameron, Carpenter, Clayton, Fenton, Ferry, of Michigan, Frelinghuysen, Hamlin, Hitchcock, Logan, Merriman, Mitchell, Morrill, of Vermont, Pease, Ramsey, Ransom, Robertson, Scott, Sherman, and West—23.

Nays—Allison, Anthony, Bogy, Boutwell Chandler, Conkling, Cooper, Davis, Ferry of Connecticut, Flanagan, Goldthwaite, Hagar, Hamilton of Missouri, Hamilton of Texas, Howe, Ingalls, McCreery, Merrill of Maine, Norwood, Oglesby, Pratt, Sargent, Saulsbury, Stockton, Sumner, Thurman, Windom, Wright—28.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The naval appropriation bill passed with amendments and goes to the House for concurrence. The army appropriation bill as reported from the Senate Committee makes a reduction of $35,000 in the appropriation for regular supplies and incidental expenses of the Quartermaster's Department, and of $218,000 in sundry and other items. The clause limiting the allowance for traveling expense to 10 cents per mile is stricken out, and the section transferring to the Southern Claims Committee all claims from loyal States now pending in the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments, is also omitted from the bills as reported. All balances of appropriations for the service of the Quartermaster's Commissary General's Department remaining undrawn on July 1st, 1873, are by this amendment covered into the treasury, while these officers are to continue to examine and act upon claims the effect is to require special appropriations by Congress to pay claimants instead of their being paid as now through the Third Auditor. Senator West and Theckermon of the committee opposed this action as imposing vexatious delays, but were overruled in committee. There will be a fierce fight over it in both houses, but vexatious delays will doubtless become the law.

HOUSE.

The bill to revise the franking privilege clumsily disguised as a plan for distributing public documents was at length, after a weeks debate brought to a vote to-day.

First came a motion to lay it on the table, and that was defeated by a majority of 18. Then came a substitute to restore the franking privilege pure and simple; but only fifty members had the daring honesty to vote for that, while 200 voted against it. Then came the first vote, and it was amusing to see the nervousness of the members about it. Many who wished the bill to pass, not wishing to appear on the yea and nay list as so voting, the result was the rejection of the bill by one majority, being 130 to 131. It will probably be revived to-morrow by a motion to reconsider. Some thirty Democrats voted for the bill.

CHARLESTON RACES.

Charleston, February 26.—Arrived—Lilly, York, David Curry, and Mosquito from Boston, lost deck load.

Sailed—South Carolina and A. K. Bently.

The races at Washington course begin today. The track is in good order and the weather fine. Hitchcock's chestnut colt, Limestone, won the two mile hurdle in 4:48, beating Santa, Lawter and Ellen. Lawter fell over in the second hurdle throwing his rider.

Second race—mile and a half dash—won by Bacon's bay filly Lady Washington in 2:51, beating Tabith and Joe Johnston. Mortgage was withdrawn.

Third race—two mile heats—won by Barnes' bay horse Granger in two straight heats in 3:51, beating Bessie Lee, Green Peas and Midgnight. The last two were distanced on the first heat.

PROBABILITIES.

Washington, February 26.—For Friday, in New England, falling barometer, higher temperature, southeast to southwest winds, cloudy weather and occasional snow.

For the Middle Atlantic and South Atlantic States, falling barometer and cloudy or hazy weather, possibly with rain in the latter section.

For the Gulf States, southeast winds, possibly increasing to brisk with cloud and rain.

For the lake region, southwest winds, veering to the northwest, with cloudy followed by clearing weather, rising barometer and somewhat lower temperature.

For the Northwest, rising barometer, lower temperature, northwest winds, partly cloudy and clear weather.

GEORGIA APPOINTMENTS.

Washington, February 26.—The following have been appointed Internal Revenue Storekeepers in the Fourth District of Georgia: James W. Cook, Wm. A. Wiggins, Henry W. Spinks.

FIRE.

Rochester, February 26.—This forenoon a fire was started by an unknown man under the second story stairs in public school house No. 12. The flames were discovered in time to permit of their suppression before any damage was done, and before there was any panic. Three hundred children in the upper rooms would have been cut off from escape except by windows if the flames had progressed far. Number 5, public school house, was set on fire Tuesday but no damage was done.

EARLY SCRAPS.

Hornellsville, February 26.—The strike of the breakmen on the Erie Railroad has ended satisfactorily to all parties, and passenger and freights train are running regularly.

Philadelphia, February 26.—Detectives have arrested Francis H. Carter alias Big Frank, who was prominent among the bank burglars, and escaped from New Castle jail.

London, February 26.—The annual race on the Thames, between the Oxford and Cambridge boat crews, which is to take place on March 28th, is beginning to attract much attention. Betting is now two to one in favor of Cambridge. The weather is very tempestuous to-day in Great Britain and on the coast. Communication by telegraph between London and various places is interfered with and much damage is done to shipping.

MIDNIGHT NEWS.

BUTLER'S COLLECTOR.

HE GOES UP A SPOUT—A PRETTY KETTLE OF RADICAL FISH.

Washington, February 26.—The Senate to-day in executive session debated for an hour and a half the nomination of Simmons to be Collector of Customs for Boston. On the question being taken the Senate found itself without a quorum and the subject went over till next executive session. The vote is represented as 15 in the affirmative and 20 in the negative. It is claimed by Simmons' friends that this is not indicative of the result, half the Senators being absent. Both the friends and opponents of Simmons were at work today and to-night on this subject. Some of the latter say that Mr. Forbes, to-day, made a written report in behalf of himself and others to the President against the nomination of Simmons, and that the President replied he would take it into consideration, and advise with Butler and Hooper. The opponents of Simmons are hopeful that the nomination will either be defeated or withdrawn. The following letter has been made public:

House of Representatives:
Washington, D. C., Feb. 26.
Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell, U. S. S.:

My Dear Sir—At your personal solicitation yesterday, I withheld the recommendation of which I enclose you a copy, signed by seven of the eleven members of Congress from our State. At the interview with the President at which you were present on Tuesday, the President said that if our Congressional delegation would substantially agree upon any person, he would nominate him instead of Mr. Simmons as Collector of Boston. In pursuance of this suggestion, we have selected three persons upon whom we have united. We have not been able to procure the signature of our associate, Mr. Dawes, who is absent from the city, and three of the eleven representatives, Mr. Buffington, Mr. Hooper, and Mr. Butler, have declined to sign it. You said to me that you could name one or two gentlemen who would be acceptable to be nominated in the place of Mr. Simmons. Will you be kind enough either to join with us in recommending the gentlemen whom we have selected, or state to us the name of a gentleman to whom you referred as a proper person to meet the President's request. We have no doubt that your selection would be of a person of character and qualifications suited to so important an office, and that we shall cheerfully acquiesce in your choice. In view of the fact that our colleague, Mr. Butler, who presented the name of Mr. Simmons, now states that he would not have recommended the nomination had he known the trouble it has made in view of the fact that the President has also stated to the committee of our citizens who waited upon him that, had this nomination not been made, he would not now make it, and that he thought Mr. Butler erred in pressing it further. It is evidently our duty to unite on some one and relieve the Presid[illegible] selves from the results of the mis[illegible]

Very respectfully yours,
H. L. P[illegible]
Third Congressional Dist. of [illegible]

The following is the recommendation [illegible] closed in the letter:

To the President of the United States: The undersigned recommend for the appoint[illegible] ment to the office of Collector of the port [illegible] Boston and Charlestown either of the [illegible] following gentlemen: Gen. Wm. L. B[illegible] Postmaster of Boston; Hon. H. I. W. [illegible] coln, late Mayor of Boston; John M. F[illegible] Deputy Collector of Boston Custom H[illegible] each of whom we think well qualified [illegible] the position. Henry C. Pierce, E. W. Harris, Geo. T. Hoar, D. W. Gooch, Jo[illegible] M. S. Williams, E. R. Hoar, Alvah Crocker.

FUN FOR THE MARINES.

TORPEDO EXPLOSIONS, SURF DODGING AND "SICH."

New York, February 26.—Dispatches from Florida Bay state that a naval [illegible] practiced at torpedo exploding on the [illegible]. This was done by anchoring a raft a mile ahead of the fleet to which they sailed and exploded a torpedo under it as they passed. Fourteen out of seventeen torpedoes were successfully exploded. The spectacle was grand, in many instances the water being thrown in a solid column twice the height of the mainmast. The shocks on board the ship were heavy. All were fired by electricity. Commodore Parker states that the experiments have demonstrated the propriety of applying torpedoes to large vessels incapable of great speed. The fleet will leave for Key West Saturday via Tortugas, and on the 9th of March there will be a grand landing of 2,500 men through the surf on the beach at Key West.

The Escaped Burglars.

ONE OF THEM CAUGHT.

Philadelphia, February 26.—Additional particulars of the capture of Big Frank state that a Wilmingtonian, upon recognizing him, went direct to Alderman Jennings' office and notified Constable Babe, who accompanied the citizen to a beer saloon where the fugitive was pointed out. Frank made no resistance and went quietly to the station house, where he was subsequently identified by the detectives. He was in company with another party when first seen on the streets, but the latter escaped.

Frank says his companion was a friend who was not interested at all in his escape. The prisoner looks very pale, and dreads going back, saying he is afraid of the mob [illegible] at the station house. He drank a full [illegible] of whisky. As to the escape, he has but little to say, except that the whole affair was planned some days before, he and his companions being in constant communication with their friends through Frazer, who had freedom of the yard. He characterizes the story about the woman [illegible] in case as piece of romance, but admits a woman called to see them in prison, and bought whisky, says it was rather unfortunate for him to come to Philadelphia, but he thought that would be the last place the officers would look for him. He further states that the whole party came up together on a freight train, and separated in West Philadelphia, other fugitves taking an early train for New York. He crossed at one of the upper bridges and roomed in the northern section of the city last night. He strongly censures his friends for not having a place of concealment for him in Philadelphia. Frank had [illegible] when arrested, and says this was part of the [illegible] given him after he got out of jail. Each of the fugitives, he says, received a like amount.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

Washington, February 26.—The Ways and Means Committee to-day decided on a tax of fifty cents a gallon on all still wines, but at the request of representative [illegible], who arrived just before the committee arose, final action was postponed to give him a hearing.

The Post-office Department has decided not to appoint in place of Gerard, the mail agent, for sixty days, that he may receive pay during his recovery.

LATE SCRAPS.

San Francisco, February 26—Thomas A. Springer, State Printer of California, died last night.

London, February 26.—The Brilliant has been lost with all on board, near Harwich. This is probably the bark Brilliant which arrived at Queenstown, February 20th, from Philadelphia.

Niles, Mich., February 26.—The [illegible] Manufacturing Companies works at South Bend was burned early this morning. The building was of wood, three stories high, 300 feet by 40. Loss $50,000.

New York, February 26.—Gold closed at 112 5-8. Customs receipts $351,000. Sub-Treasury paid $3[illegible],000 for gold interest, and $7,000 for called bonds.

OUR POLICE FORCE.—Atlanta has a number of most efficient and trusty policemen, but those who are not must be summarily discharged. Upon this the people are determined. This is due alike to the citizens and the policemen who are true to their duty.

LEYDEN'S AMMONIATED SOLUBLE GUANO.—This valuable fertilizer can be purchased by cotton at 15 cents. Price, free on board cars at Charleston or Savannah, $54 cash, $60 time. Freight to Atlanta $1 80. Consult advertisement on another page, to which the above items are to be added.

H. L. MCCUE.—H L McCue, whose commitment to jail by Justice Butt has already been reported, was arrested by Officer M M White. This policeman turned him over to Officer Holland, while he went after the others who were implicated in the robbery with McCue, but not finding them he took his man to the Guard House.

FUN.—The House last night, while waiting for the Senate to get ready to adjourn, indulged in mock sessions. The wags of the House, Mattox, Smith, of Bryan, Twitty and Shewmake, and lastly but not least, Hinton P. Wright occupied the Speaker's chair. Resolutions, reports, motions, points of order and speeches were the order. The House went with perfect abandon into fun-making.

OFFICER BRAZELTON.—It has ever been the course of this paper to avoid injustice to any person or cause, and act upon no matter until after the most rigid investigation. Hence, while the conduct of this officer stands in a most unenviable light, we have refrained from attacking him; and the more so, that a number of persons have informed us of his vigilant performance of duty in numerous instances. We await his arraignment officially.

THE PEOPLE AROUSED.—The citizens of Atlanta are fully aroused on the subject of the late homicide and the conduct of our policemen in connection with it. We have been unable to supply the demand for THE CONSTITUTION for several days past on account of our articles on the matter. The people are determined to have a thorough investigation into the conduct of the men selected to preserve the peace and prevent violence. If gross or other misconduct attaches, let an example be sternly made.

A LUNATIC ARRESTED.—Nancy Brown, a negro woman, was arrested yesterday in the second ward for lunacy. This woman has already been once in the State lunatic asylum upon this charge and remained there several years. Some six months ago she was discharged. She returned to Atlanta, and for some time past has been a great annoyance to the citizens of the second ward. She is so afflicted as to render her at times dangerous. Her case will be brought before the Ordinary at once.

TOCCOA AND CARNESVILLE [illegible]

They Want Assistance from Atlanta.

Important Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting of the Chamber yesterday was more largely attended than it has been for some time past. In addition to the regular members, Messrs. O. C. Wyly and Thomas Crymes, of Carnesville, were present. These gentlemen were sent to Atlanta by an informal meeting of the citizens of Carnesville to represent the interests of the Toccoa and Carnesville Railroad.

Their object is to induce our citizens to subscribe to the enterprise. Mr. Crymes, by invitation, addressed the Chamber at some length. He argued that by assisting in the building of this road Atlanta would obtain the exclusive trade of all that section of county beyond Carnesville, which is now absorbed by other places. This country is well watered by the Tugalo and North Rivers, and is known to comprise some of the best farming lands in the State. On account of the difficulty of access to and the distance from Atlanta, this valuable trade is now absorbed by Athens, Anderson Court House and even Augusta.

The Elberton people want a railroad built from Toccoa City to Elberton, but are unable to build it without the help of the Franklin county people. They insisted that the road should pass through Carnesville. The survey showed that it would cost $100,000 to cross North River at Carnesville, which is more than the entire cost of a road from Carnesville to Toccoa, and which has rendered this enterprise almost impracticable. On the other hand a majority of the Carnesville and Franklin county people desire a more intimate relation with Atlanta, and are very anxious to see the road built.

WHAT WE ARE ASKED TO GIVE.

With respect to the cost of this road, Mr. Crymes said: The distance between Carnesville and Toccoa is sixteen miles. The Air-Line Railroad has entered into a contract with the citizens of Franklin county to the effect that, if they will grade this sixteen mile branch, and lay the cross-ties, the Road will place the iron and all the necessary rolling stock upon it. Under this agreement the citizens of Carnesville had a survey made at their own expense. This survey reveals the fact that the route is not only very practicable, but that the road can be graded, and the cross-ties laid at a cost not exceeding $55,000.

Franklin county has issued $30,000 in bonds, which can be sold at par. In view of the many advantages which this road offers to Atlanta it was determined to ask us for help. The amount which Atlanta is asked to subscribe is only

TEN OR TWELVE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

If this amount is obtained, the Carnesville people are satisfied that they can raise the balance without difficulty.

Mr. Crymes concluded by saying that he had thought the best way to reach the people of Atlanta would be through the Chamber of Commerce, and had, therefore addressed them.

Mr. John N. Dunn moved that the thanks of the merchants, be returned to the citizens of Franklin county, for their expressions of good will towards Atlanta, and to Mr. Crymes, for his address. Also, that a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to consult with the City Council as to the practicability of extending the assistance asked for. This motion was adopted unanimously. The Chair appointed upon the committee, Messrs. A. C. Wyly, John M. Dunn, H. A. Fuller, T. J. Hightower, and R. J. Lowry.

On motion, the Chamber adjourned.

ALBANY CIRCUIT.

No 19. Argument concluded.

No. 17. J M Kindall vs R J Davis. Lien, from Dougherty. Argued. Vason & Davis for plaintiff in error. G J Wright, contra.

No. 18—Martha A. Merritt vs The State. Murder, from Dougherty. Argued. H. Morgan, for plaintiff in error. B. B. Bower, Solicitor General, for the State.

At the conclusion of the argument of Mr. Morgan, the Court adjourned until ten o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

The Justices' Court.

Andrew Davis, the negro whose arrest in Rome, by officer Bolton, for stealing a gold watch and chain from the Kimball House, has already been fully reported in THE CONSTITUTION, had a preliminary trial yesterday before Justice Butt. The warrant was sworn out by Col. William M. Nichols, but it appeared that the stolen property belonged to a Mrs. Prince, who is a housekeeper at the hotel. The prisoner was committed to jail.

Justice Butt had before him yesterday a white man named W. C. Moore, who was arrested by the police on Wednesday night for stealing a pair of shoes and $2 80 in money from one Joseph McLaughlin. The prisoner confessed his guilt and was sent to jail.

Station House Report.

Green Henderson, a negro, was arrested yesterday for having in his possession a number of stolen plows. He was carried to the quarters and will be held for further investigation.

There were also seven city arrests by the police. All for disorderly conduct and drunkenness.

DEAR SIR—Having listened with great pleasure to your sermon delivered on Sunday evening the 22d instant, on the reciprocal duties of Husband and Wife, and believing that it would accomplish great good if published, We earnestly request a copy of the same for publication.

ATLANTA, GA., February 25, 1874.

Messrs. T. J. Watt, W. L. Goldsmith, and Others:

GENTLEMEN.—In replying to your communication of the 23d inst., permit me to express thanks for your complimentary opinion of the pulpit address of last Sabbath evening. The sermon, however, was only written in part, and to prepare it for the press would require more time and labor than is consistent with the numerous and urgent duties devolving on me. Tendering you personally my acknowledgments for the very kind manner in which you were pleased to speak of my imperfect lecture.

I remain, most respectfully yours,
EUSTACE W. SPEER.

Thalberg and Gottschalk Speak for Themselves—They Agree with Mr. Dauck.

Messrs. Wm. Knabe & Co:

GENTLEMEN—I have great pleasure in certifying that I have tried your Square Pianos and find them equal, if not superior, to any in this country. Among the great qualities which distinguish them, is the evenness of tone, the easy and agreeable touch and volume of tone. Wishing you all the success which you so highly deserve, I am, sirs,

Yours very truly, S. THALBERG.

After playing on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co. it is impossible not to bear testimony to the qualities which have acquired for them the [illegible] reputation which they enjoy. The pianos of their manufacture on which I have [illegible] are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities of tone. The bass is powerful [illegible], and the upper notes sweet, clear and [illegible] (crystalline) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal, if not superior, to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

WEDDED.—Mr. John Blain, a worthy type, formerly [illegible] S. C., was married yesterday, at Decatur, to Miss Susan E. Shop, by the Rev. D. [illegible] [illegible]

Farewell Addresses of President Trammell, Speaker Bacon and Speaker pro tem Anderson.

Hon. L. N. Trammell said last night,

SENATORS,

The hand upon the dial plate signals the hour which demands the adjournment of this Senate, and our separation. To many of us in all human probability this separation will be final. This, to me, is a sad thought, and as I rise in my place to perform the last duty required of me as your presiding officer, that of declaring this Senate adjourned without a day, the chamber seems solemnized with it. The gloom of this thought is relieved alone by the memory of that unfailing kindness and courtesy upon your part, which has sustained and encouraged me through the long period which I have been your presiding officer, and which, I assure you, I shall remember with pleasure and gratitude through all the coming years of my life. That we have in our daily labors been cheered with that abundance of good will, cordiality and charity towards each other which seldom characterizes a brotherhood, you must all feel and appreciate.

That the daily action of your body has been inspired with a high, pure and lofty desire to serve your State faithfully and patriotically, free from all designs of mere selfish ambition, has not only been attested again and again by your action and conduct upon this floor, but your works will follow after and stand as living monuments to your wisdom and integrity.

But few legislative bodies have had presented to them an equal opportunity to do good, and but few, I imagine, have ever assembled surrounded and environed with greater difficulties. The good you have accomplished will ever vindicate your patriotism, and the obstacles which you have overcome will testify to your wisdom.

Dark indeed was the day of our convocation. An empty treasury and a prostrated credit, to add to the gloom and darkness of that hour there was a feeling of despondency pervading the country well calculated to impress the minds of the most ardent patriots with mistrust in their abilities to conduct the State safely through the manifold dangers which surrounded her; with great earnestness and singleness of purpose, you applied yourselves assiduously to the task, and under your guidance, aided by your compatriots of the other branches of the government, she has weathered the storm, and stands to-day, the peer of the proudest of her sisters. For your inspired wisdom and heroic fidelity manifested on so many occasions during the period of your arduous services, a good people will not fail to award you the plaudit of well done. good and faithful servants.

Unlike those who labor for mere applause, you have not consumed your time nor wasted the people's money in needless debates upon questions which more properly belonged to the national legislature, but your labors have been devoted mainly to measures affecting Georgia alone.

In refusing to be drawn aside from the task of relieving your State from the embarrassments consequent upon a long period of misrule, surrounded as you have been by vexed political problems, the solution of which promised but little good to any one, your course has been both wise and patriotic.

While your course has not been that of partisans, you have maintained, upon all questions involving the great cardinal principles of democratic government, a position which entitles you to the confidence and esteem of every lover of liberty and every friend of the Constitution.

You have been firm, without being aggressive; you have stood by the truth, neither compromising or sacrificing principle; and, by your, justice, wisdom and moderation have commanded the respect even of your enemies.

In conclusion, Senators, allow me to return to you my heartfelt thanks for the charity and forbearance which you have manifested towards my imperfections and shortcoming as your presiding officer and for the kindness and courtesy you have extended me upon all occasions. Trusting that upon your return home to the bosom of your families and to mingle again with those whom you have served so faithfully and so well, you may be met with the cheer and smiles of rosy health, and a proper appreciation by your constituents for your noble efforts for them, and for your State, and that Heaven may bless and prosper you and those you love. I bid you all adieu.

The Senate stands adjourned.

Hon W D Anderson, Speaker pro. tem, said: I always delight to act myself. I am happy whenever the occasion presents itself to speak what I feel. This is a moment of sadness to me. It is probably the last time my voice shall be heard in these walls as a representative of the people. This does not occasion the sadness, but the fact that I must part with those associated with me in efforts to serve the State, does fill my heart with sorrow. I part with men who have been kinder to me than I have to them.

When the billows ebb to the great bosom of the ocean we feel assured that in the fulness of time they shall come again—come with renewed strength and swelling growth. When the foliage and flowers of autumn retire before the approach of winter we have an abiding hope that they will return in the spring time with the freshness and bloom. But when friend parts with friend they have no right to expect to meet again.

Our labors belong to history what will be their results time alone can tell. Should the future historian question the motives of this body, if I am permitted to be present, I will tell him he is a traducer and a maligner. If I have said anything to any member that has caused pain, forgive me—it was neither hurled by malice or tipped with poison. I wish for each member a happy reunion with his family and friends and a long and prosperous life—a life illuminated by the mellow benedictions of heaven. I bid you all a kind and affectionate farewell. [Applause]

Speaker Bacon, who was visibly affected, said in substance: Our labors have been finished and it remains for me to say the words which adjourns us for the last time. Whether our work has been well done it is not for us to say. Our record has been made up. It is not for us to speak of it. But there is one thing I hold no priority to others to speak of; the zeal, fidelity and care that you have manifested to protect the interest of the State, I am able to speak of, and as a witness will give no uncertain voice. Of the abilities displayed by you, the State may well feel proud, rich as she is in the number of her gifted sons. Discussions have taken place on this floor that would have done honor to any parliamentary assembly, go where you may to seek it. The watchful care and attentive industry of the silent members of this House are the best of safe guards. One thing I heartily affirm is that this House need not fear to give an account of their stewardship.

The anticipations of meeting with warm hearts and loving hands may cause us to forget for awhile the sadness of parting. But the time must come when these emotions will flow back to the heart. The friendships grown up will not be be left behind, but will outlive the close of our official term. It will grow up purer and stronger when tried in the crucible of adversity. The expressions of thanks by presiding officers is generally considered stereotyped. I have not language at my command to express the feelings of gratitude that wells up in my heart. You have honored me as I was never honored before. No unkind word has ever been uttered by a member to me, and if there is a member on the floor that entertains an unkind feeling towards me I thank God that I do not know it, and I hope that if there is, I will never be advised of it. I feel grateful for the prompt assistance and cooperation of my old friend and class-mate, Hon. W. D. Anderson, of Cobb. Wishing you abundant prosperity and an early meeting with the loved ones at home, I declare this House adjourned without a day.

[Applause.]

Celebration of a Wooden Wedding at West Point, Ga.

Editors Constitution: On the evening of the 22d instant the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lanier was thronged with numerous friends to extend their congratulations to the bride and groom of five years. The bride wore her second day's dress—a handsome lilac silk—her wedding slippers, gloves, etc. The groom still had his wedding coat and gloves. Each looked as handsome and happy as when newly married. A number of ornamental as well as useful presents were made. Among the prettiest were two beautiful chromos presented by J. J. Crawford and lady and J S Baker and lady. A [illegible] chair from Dr A W Griggs and lady. A love of a work table from C A Ferrell and lady. Mr. [illegible] sent a load of fat pine, and Mr. W. T. Sheppard two huge wash tubs. [illegible] buckets, [illegible], sifters, brooms, [illegible] boxes, [illegible] and toys were also among the collection. At 11 o'clock the bride who were:

Mr L Lanier and wife; Mr B S Chisolm and Miss Estelle Gachet; Mr J N Harris and Miss Louis C Chisolm; Mr Frank Lanier and wife; Dr [illegible] and wife; [illegible] and wife; Mr James McClendon, and wife; Master Henry Lanier and Miss Helen Ferrell.

When the guests repaired to the dining room, where everything was found to tempt the appetite of the most fastidious epicure. At a late hour the guests departed, many feeling that if all wooden weddings were so [illegible] as this they should ever be ready to attend. We trust that Mr and Mrs Lanier may live to celebrate their silver and golden weddings and diamond one. [illegible]

... affection, for they are the outpourings of a [illegible] true heart. His little presentation speech last evening was appropriate, touching and in excellent taste.

Mr. Cameron in reply, said: The Messenger of the Senate feels unwilling to separate from the members [illegible] a [illegible], yet [illegible] sincere expression of his gratitude, for the many acts of kindness which he has received from them. He can truly say that nothing has disturbed for a single moment, the pleasantness of an Association which now terminates with the session. Each and all have deported themselves toward him, not only as gentlemen, but as friends.

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE,
ATLANTA, GA., February 25, 1874.

AT the last regular meeting of the Mayor and Council of the city of Atlanta, the following resolution was introduced and adopted, viz:

Whereas, The custom of selling whisky by the bottle, known as fives and sixes, has been of long standing and practiced by all dealers, and

Whereas, The late construction of the Code makes it a violation to sell such bottles:

Therefore, be it resolved, That notice be given through the daily papers for one week, that all such sales of bottles are violations of the City Code, and will be held as such. All parties dealing in liquors are required to sell full quarts, or else be considered as violators, and punished according to law.

I certify that the above is a true and correct copy from the regular minutes of Council.

"Our Young Folks"

HAS BEEN MERGED IN "ST. NICHOLAS

In addition to the striking novelties and great literary and artistic attractions already offered by "ST. NICHOLAS," THE BEST FEATURES OF "OUR YOUNG FOLKS" will be retained. "ST NICHOLAS" HAS BEEN ENLARGED, new contributions have been secured: among them

A SERIAL STORY BY J. T. TROWBRIDGE

Late Editor of "Our Young Folk," which begins in the present number. Other Eminent writers well known to the readers of "Our Young Folks," have been engaged. We are thus enabled to present to the public a magazine for Children and Youth, superior in every respect to any ever before published.

Three Splendid Serial Stories:

"WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECTED,"

A Story for Boys,
By FRANK R. STOCKTON,

Author of "Ting-a-Ling," "Roundabout Ramble," etc. Mr. Stockton is one of the best of our American Writers. The scene of the story is laid in Virginia. The boy-hero has started out with a gun on his shoulder, and we may be sure there will be no end of fun and adventures.

"NIMPO'S TROUBLES,"

A Story for Girls,
By OLIVE THORNE (Mrs. Harriet M. Miller,)

A great favorite with the children. It is a good, strong, wholesome story of girl life, and will be full interest for both boys and girls.

"FAST FRIENDS,"

By J. T. TROWBRIDGE,

One of the most popular writers for young folks in America. Readers of "Jack Hazard," "A Chance for Himself," and "Doing his Best," will understand what a capital treat is in store for them in Mr. Trowbridge's new story. All these Stories will be Splendidly Illustrated.

"JIMMYJOHN STORIES,"

By Mrs. ABY MORTON DIAZ,

Author of "The William Henry Letters," "William Henry and his Friends," and "Lucy Maria" (who has the rare and happy gift of knowing how to delight young people,) will appear during the year. There will also be Shorter Stories, Papers on Science and History, Natural History, Wild Sports and Adventures, Sketches of Travel, Fairy Tales, Poems, Puzzles, Charades, Jingles, Fun and Fancy, Instruction, Entertainment and Delight. Something for all, from Father and Mother to the Baby. The Illustrations will be the best that the Artists of two continents can supply, and will be printed with the greatest care.

FOR VERY LITTLE FOLKS.

Our pages in big type and easy words for the youngest readers, which have been "a hit" from the first, will be continued. The children will be glad to know also, that the department of

is to be a permanent feature of the magazine. Jack will tell some of the most curious things ever heard, and make himself generally entertaining.

We have undertaken to make the best magazine possible, for the little folks, as well as those who are older. Every number of St. Nicholas will contain good reading matter for boys and girls of all ages besides a great deal of hearty and innocent fun.

Christmas comes but once a year, but St. Nicholas, the new magazine for girls and boys, comes every month. It has already won the hearts of the young folks, and the little Children are Crying for St. Nicholas.

WE WANT 100,000

CHILDREN AND YOUTH MADE HAPPY

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Billous Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 30 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA, MORBUS, BILLIOUS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

For sale by all druggists.

MODE OF DRAWING.

There will be upon the stage two glass wheels, the contents of which can be seen by all the spectators. A committee of two citizens, in no way connected with the management, and of undoubted integrity, having first counted and examined, will place in the larger wheel 12,600 tickets exactly alike, and having printed numbers from one to 12,600 corresponding to all the tickets sold. A similar committee, having first counted and examined, will place in tubes precisely alike the prizes which are placed in the smaller wheel. Both wheels will then be turned until their contents are thoroughly mixed. A boy under fifteen years of age, blindfolded, will then draw from the larger wheel one of the 12,600 tickets, and holding it up in full view of the spectators and auditors, its number will be called by the crier appointed for this purpose, so that all present may hear. The number will then be passed to the committee of citizens, who will say whether the number has been rightly called. It will then be passed to a registrar, who will file it, and record it upon a book prepared for that purpose. A boy of similar age will then draw from the smaller wheel one of the tubes containing a prize, which will be opened and held up to the view of the spectators and auditors. The value of the real estate prize will then be cried, and passed to the committee, who after inspection, will give it to another registrar to file and record. The prize thus drawn will belong to the ticket bearing the number drawn immediately before it. Thus this process will continue, drawing first from the large wheel containing the tickets, and then from the small or prize wheel until all the tubes containing the prizes are drawn. An accurate record of the above will be kept on file, certified to by the committee of disinterested citizens officiating.

The Prizes below $300 in value are approximations, and will be determined and paid as follows: The numbers of all the Tickets sold being considered in a circle, numerically formed, and having the highest number, 12,600, and, the lowest, 1, brought together, then whatever number in this circle may be by lot determined to be entitled to the Capital Prize of $25,000 will be taken as a center, on each side of which the next 300 numbers in numerical order will be counted for the $10 Prizes, thus making on the two sides of Capital the 600 nearest numbers, each of which will be entitled to a Real Estate Prize of $10. All the Tickets drawing larger Prizes will be excluded, and the circle extended to include 600 on both sides of the Capital, being 300 on each side, it being the purpose of the management not to duplicate Prizes.

MONEY—All money received from sale of Tickets will be deposited in Bank immediately on receipt of remittances.

TRANSFER OF TITLES.—Within ten days after the drawing, parties putting Real Estate on the market under this Scheme, are required to make good, valid and unencumbered titles thereto to the Georgia Real Estate and Immigration Company—said Company obligating themselves to transfer such title in fee simple to the party or parties who may draw such Prize of Real Estate.

Tickets can be had on application, personally or by letter, to authorized agents, the managers, or
